VI. PUBLIC COMMENTS

All public comments are limited to 5 minutes per person

Wayne Hedrick, 206 Oak Street, asked how much the City had invested in the Cumberland Economic Development Corporation and whether the abatement of CEDC taxes at the last meeting was in addition to that amount. He was advised that the budgeted amount for FY18 had been reduced to $300,000 and the tax abatement was in addition to that.

Paul Notarianni, 819 Fayette Street, raised several questions regarding the Cumberland Economic Development Corporation, stating that although the board of directors pay $5,000 to participate in the corporation, the CEDC's articles of incorporation allow the directors to be compensated by the corporation. He questioned how much they were being paid back. Mr. Cohen advised that he did not have personal knowledge of the CEDC but did know that it was not unusual for by laws for corporations to have such provisions. Mr. Notarianni stated that his concern was that the Times News portrayed the board as altruistic members and questioned Council as to their knowledge of certain CEDC actions.

Carey Walker, 201 S. Massachusetts Avenue, advised that he had written a letter to the Mayor and Council in June with questions regarding the City's street paving priority list and had not yet received a response. Mr. Walker asked several questions regarding the criteria used to determine the priority list for street paving, noting several that were not listed that he felt should be a priority. Council advised that they would make sure he received answers to his questions.

VI. PUBLIC COMMENTS

All public comments are limited to 5 minutes per person

Harold Martin, 1038 Myrtle Street, discussed concerns regarding the "share the road" signs for bikes that had been placed on Frederick and Bedford Streets. He stated that 56 signs had been placed in a 1.2 mile stretch of each street, the signs looked terrible and ruined the neighborhood. He further stated that the vote in 2016 had been to mark the lane to share the road. Mayor Grim and Councilman Bernard discussed that the vote had been to not designate the road as a bike lane and the law allows the bikes to share the use of the entire lane with the cars.

Tamara Clarke, 811 Memorial Avenue, requested that fluoride be banned from the City's water system. She discussed that fluoride did not provide the health benefits it was purported to have and talked about the values of research and its impact on fluoride information.

Carey Walker, 201 Massachusetts Avenue, discussed concerns regarding the condition of Grand Avenue. He stated he had also discussed these concerns last year and he requested a list of proposed street repairs. He had been informed by Mr. Rhodes that Grand Avenue was not on the list for repair yet was one of the worst in the city. Mr. Rhodes discussed how the streets are prioritized for repair. Mr. Walker also discussed complaints about an alley between South Street and Pennsylvania Avenue. Mr. Rhodes advised that he would get further information from him and look into the matter.

VII. ADJOURNMENT

With no further business at hand, the meeting adjourned at 7:38 p.m.

ATTEST: Marjorie A. Woodring, City Clerk _____

Statement read by Councilman Frazier at June 20, 2017 public meeting.

Prior to this evening's vote on the city's proposed tax rate increase, I would like to say a few words to explain why I'm opposed.

Most of my fellow council members have served longer and have been through this budget process a time or two. That may give them a little more experience, but sometimes a pair of fresh eyes can help.

Something that has bothered me about this budget shortfall is why it wasn't brought to our attention sooner so that we may have had more time to come up with solutions.

One of my main reasons for voting against the increase is that I believe it will provide a disincentive for both businesses and people thinking of locating to our city. Some of our expressed goals have been to further economic growth, entice our young adults to stay, and encourage others to move here. Why would they invest here, remain here, or move here when they can locate outside our city and still enjoy many of its benefits without paying the higher taxes.

We have had several citizens come to our meetings and express why we shouldn't raise taxes. Several of these individuals are or have been involved with local governments, including Jerry Frantz, Lawrence Becker, and former Councilwoman Mary Beth Pirolozzi. Ms. Pirolozzi has also sent emails with suggestions on steps we could consider to avoid raising taxes. I have talked to them individually, and I concur with many of their ideas.

There have been letters and emails from individuals and organizations, such as Mike D'atri, the Allegany County Chamber of Commerce, and the Historic Highlands Association of Realtors, all of whom have predicted negative consequences this tax increase will have on our city.

Another reason I am against this tax increase is due to the effect it will have on our citizens. Our city is made up of a lot of older citizens who live on modest monthly incomes. Many of them live from paycheck to paycheck, and though this amount may seem trivial to some it will be devastating to others. I use my sister as an example. Through conversations, she has told me how badly this tax increase will affect her.

I don't profess to have all the answers or solutions but many of the ideas and suggestions presented by some of the people I have referenced warrant a closer look and possible implementation. We need to work with the county and other municipalities on ways we can combine services, share responsibilities, and save money.

I, like my fellow council members, want what's best for our city. One thing I have suggested was to have a committee/commission formed that would take a careful look at our budget and how and where we spend our money and determine where we have waste, where we can make cuts, and savings can be made. I realize we have department heads that have done this, but as I said before sometimes a fresh set of eyes can be helpful. I have also proposed an idea the Mike D'atri suggested, a one time surcharge instead of a tax increase which would give us more time to come up with better solutions. Neither of these ideas I proposed were considered by the council. I've never seen my tax rate go down after it's been raised, and I fear the same for this rate increase.

I will continue to work with my fellow council members to resolve these and other problems and make Cumberland a place where people can live and prosper.

Statement read by Councilman Bernard during June 20, 2017 public meeting

First, I just wanted to thank everyone who participated in this process over the last several months. Being educated and informed is absolutely a hallmark of a healthy society.

All of us here have found ourselves faced with a problem that had been, frankly, avoided for years. But make no mistake, these are absolutely tough problems. None of us here ran for office to raise taxes – but we did run with the promise we would steer the ship away from the storms – and that’s what I view us doing here.

It’s no surprise that the easiest decision aren’t always the right ones. In my opinion, it’s easy to say “cut”, but how can we continue to cut, when further cuts would mean the elimination of police officers, the elimination of fire fighters? That’s not an option at this juncture – especially with our nation in the midst of a heroin epidemic.

The average increase is 6 bucks a month – in my opinion, a small price to pay to maintain services – but at the same time, I’m aware that’s still a lot to ask of some people. That’s why we’re committed to try and do all we can to lower this increase, hopefully as soon as next year.

We recognize the long-term fixes and are already attempting to implement them, such as evaluating employee health costs, as well as collaborating with the County – not to mention this administration’s aggressive efforts in regards to ED and Neighborhood Revitalization. We want to set this up so our City is never faced with this again.

Statement made by Mayor Grim at June 20, 2017 public meeting

This evening, it is important to recognize that the series of votes before the Mayor and Council are among the most serious and significant that I have had to cast a vote in my eight years in office, to date. Speaking for myself, I can assure you that political futures play no role in my own decision making process.

To the gentlemen seated to my right and left, thank you. Thank you for working through a very challenging process, engaging the citizens of Cumberland at every turn, and participating in ten public meetings in which this topic was a part, including a public Town Hall. Thank you for taking on a challenge that has been a can kicked down the road for decades, for generations, for too many administrations, a financial challenge that took root so long ago that some of us sitting here were not yet born when those decisions were being made and local and global economic challenges began brewing. Thank you for enduring a time when the decision made will be unpopular, no matter the decision, as there is no right decision. Thank you for having the fortitude to look out for the future of our community, through this process.

To those very few citizens, far less than 1% of the Cumberland population, who participated in the process, thank you for being heard. It was your voices that impacted the proposal before the Council tonight. It was through ten public meetings, including a Town Hall, where citizens simultaneously demanded service increases, no cuts to city services and no tax rate increases, though there were some who expected elimination of the fire department and others who argued in favor of much higher tax rate increases. In reality, the citizens of this community gave their elected leaders in this Representative Democracy, no consensus. Citizens gave no clear direction. Citizens reached consensus, seemingly, only in the desire not to cut services and not to raise taxes. Those two positions are impossible. Moving forward after the decision tonight, the community must wear the burden on its collective shoulders to decide what we want Cumberland to be in the next five, ten, twenty and fifty years. Without consensus, leaders will continue to make bad decisions, decisions that are unpopular, and as is the case tonight, decisions which will most certainly leave most everybody angry.

Often I hear from citizens that the fix to our economic woes are more jobs, more population and more economic development. That's all true, but for the city, that all takes place through tax base growth, something we continue to suffer a glut from, to the tune of approximately $52 million in recent years. While its true that some people need jobs, there are far too many jobs from manufacturing to technology going unfilled right now. Signs and even billboards now announce "now hiring" in Cumberland. Jobs do exist! Population growth is necessary to fuel tax base growth. And more economic development spurs all of these things, though some citizens and even some local business owners continue to fight against any and all development, right down to a local businessman even today taking steps to try to prevent the Rolling Mill project from taking place. But I suggest to you that our biggest problem is not economic, but attitude. Too many negative, pessimistic and self loathing attitudes continue to project the loudest voices while the silent majority sites back...in silence. The attitude of this community must, must, must change. Angst against bicyclists, anger about new restaurants, frustration over road construction, impatience for snow plowing, ignorance toward change and continued words of self loathing are our greatest weakness and greatest enemy.

We are a community suffering tax base decline. We are simultaneously cited as one of the most affordable markets to live in with low housing costs. With those effects come limited revenues to city government to provide basic or desired expanded services. Citizens have been fairly consistent in expecting services from the city, but the chorus of anger toward a tax rate increase has grown.

Let me be very clear to those of you who may have formed an opinion against any tax rate hike, including the Chamber of Commerce and the Realtors Association. This is not a decision as so narrowly suggested, to raise taxes or not. It's a decision to either increase revenues to maintain city services or dramatically cut services.

Demands for more cuts are ignorant to the fact that to this point, every effort has already been undertaken to prevent tax rate increases. Within the past 10-15 years, the city has eliminated 21 management positions and 46 hourly positions, many of which are in public safety services. Cuts are not a way forward, as the real problem is a severely declined tax base. In fact, even with the proposed tax rate increase, the average Cumberland homeowner will still pay less in taxes than several years ago, due to declined property values.

Calls for no tax rate increases should be recognized as calls for deep and potentially dangerous cuts. Without this increase, many city services and programs would not only be jeopardized, but could be eliminated entirely and include cuts to fire and EMS services, cuts to police, closure of the Constitution Park pool, closing city sports fields, elimination of annual city fireworks displays (which are subsidized by donations from local businesses) and reduction of snow plowing services to emergency routes only.

Generic suggestions that more cuts take place to the government "fat" are uninformed and ignore efforts to date. Expectations that across the board cuts occur do not recognize that those cuts would require turning off street lights, slashing the parks and recreation department of only one full time employee, by closing the Park pool and padlocking city ball fields. It could mean, as has been suggested by one citizen in this very chamber, the end of C3I, the narcotics investigation unit.

The Chamber of Commerce stated a desire for the City to "act on all possible alternatives including consolidation of services and adjustments in personnel and benefit expense before considering a tax increase." I agree, however consolidation requires the partnership of Allegany County and cannot be fulfilled unilaterally by the City of Cumberland. It requires that Commissioner Valentine's perceived War on Cumberland end immediately.

Adjustments to personnel have been done for many years with employees today fulfilling the jobs of their previous subordinates as well as supervisors. Jobs are further reduced in the budget proposal before the Council. Benefit expenses must change and are being undertaken with bargaining units, as they are included in negotiated contracts. With most city employees paying only 3%-10% of their healthcare expenses and healthcare costs exploding by up to $1 million per year, it is my position that city employees must move to paying 20% of those expenses. This change must be negotiated, however.

As citizens have provided input leading up to a decision about the FY'18 budget, it is important to recognize that input has been weighed constantly and a lack of community consensus about a direction has left the Council with this difficult decision. None of the Council ever desired to have to make this decision to cut city services or implement tax increases. Nobody here is advocating for tax rate increases and nobody is specifically calling for elimination of city services. We have worked diligently to prevent the initial 20% tax rate increase and reduce it to 9.75%. That may have been a mistake. The proposal before the Council now is an attempt to balance the concerns of all citizens and I personally believe, the worst option that could be considered, as it both raises taxes and implements cuts that could put citizens in danger. Even so, the Council has taken on the challenge of resolving a decades-long problem rather than kick it down the road again. For eight years, I have sat at budget presentation meetings and been one of the voices to say, "take tax increases off the table." I even did so this year, but the stark realities are too dire now.

The current proposal reduces firefighters, police officers, the City Planner, and street department staff, as well as reduces spending on economic development and Downtown, all on top of across the board cuts to city departments. It further refinances city debt and implements borrowing for the coming years' capital projects. Even so, some are calling for even more dramatic cuts with the short sighted demand that there be no tax rate increases, even following significant tax base decline in recent years that amounts to a current deficit of $52 million.

The proposal calls for a 9.75% tax rate increase, which will cost the average citizen of Cumberland, $6.00 per month. In many cases, even with such an increase in place, citizens will still be paying less in taxes than they did before the tax base decline occurred. And no increase like this comes without the option to reduce or remove it in the future, as the tax base hopefully grows again.

Times are tough and this action will not end the crisis before our city, but it is a step toward doing so. More difficult decisions are ahead and the community must reach some consensus to solve these systemic deficits. To my colleagues, let me be very clear that tonight we are not just voting for a tax rate increase. A vote of "no" is a vote to cut firefighters, reduce EMS services, cut the police department, close the Constitution Park pool, padlock city sports fields, reduce snow plowing services to emergency routes, only, pull out of C3I and narcotics investigations and cut spending on blight removal efforts that ultimately result in increasing property values and growing the tax base.

Following the outcome of this evening, Cumberland citizens must step up. Complaining without being involved is a waste of time. Negativity and pessimism are the enemy of our future. Lack of true engagement through community services and informed decision making will drive Cumberland over the cliff we are on today, teetering between a future of success and a cataclysmic collapse.

Colleagues, in the course of service, each of us has had to face difficult decisions. However none of us should be subjected to lies, attacks or death threats as was the case, with the threat directed at staff and the Mayor and Council from a citizen in this very building just last week. This body is compensated at 1978 wages for doing the job of looking out for the best interest of Cumberland. Tonight, I am confident that my colleagues will continue to fulfill that duty and whatever the decision made, we should expect the results to be felt for, potentially, decades to come. And while this body may sometimes disagree, I am confident that each member of Council is looking out for what he believes is in the city's best interest.

Dear Ms. Woodring,

This letter is a follow-up to our phone conversation this morning about obtaining permission to close the street in front of the library's main entrance on September 15, 2017. The Allegany County Library System will be holding a grand re-opening celebration for its South Cumberland Library on Friday, September 15th at 100 Seymour Street, from 5:30 p.m.-7:30 p.m. We are planning to host local and state dignitaries, including Governor Larry Hogan at this event. This celebration will include a "block party" for the community in South Cumberland, including a 6 p.m. ribbon cutting ceremony. As part of the block party we are having bounce houses and food vendors. For the safety of those attending, we are requesting permission to close the street in front of the library's main entrance to traffic from 4 p.m.-9 p.m. We would like to set-up food, games, booths, and activities in the library parking lot and on 1st Street in front of our parking lot. I hope that this information clarifies my request.

Please contact me with any additional questions.

Thank you,
